GOAL: You have been asked to write a report on what you consider to be the most likely changes in your city to become sustainable.

ROLE: You are part of a sustainable solutions company, which is trying to bring business in.

AUDIENCE: Your report will be featured on the company's website.

SITUATION: You have been asked to write a report on potential sustainable measures that can be implemented in your community and the short- and long-term effects these changes will have.

PRODUCT: A report which highlights the positive effects of sustainability.

SUCCESS CRITERIA: Your report must include:

- An introduction: "This report will outline the reasons for ... and offer solutions to the problem.
- Topic sentences in each paragraph that summarize the main idea presented in the paragraph.
- A wide range of vocabulary and grammar, specifically future tenses.
- A conclusion

You will rarely get a written report correct in your first draft. Patience and persistence are key.
